Please specify the structural constraints (cardinality and participation) for each relationship in the following ER diagram. If you have any assumption on the entities and relationships, you have to identify them clearly. Note that CLASS describes a particular offering of a course. For example, Database system is a course, but database system in 2004 Fall is a class.